

Epoch Design to Showcase New Mail Boss™ High Security Locking Mail Box Product Line at National Hardware Show, May 6-8, 2008 at Booth #37636

REDMOND, WA—April 28, 2008

Epoch Design, LLC, manufacturer of the Mail Boss™ locking security mailbox and innovative provider of USPS approved security mailboxes in the U.S., will be exhibiting their new high security locking mailbox product line at Booth #37636 at the 2008 National Hardware Show in Las Vegas.

To satisfy growing customer demands, Epoch Design has created a new Mail Boss™ Wall Mount locking security mailbox, the only wall mount mailbox with true fortress-like security features. Two attractive wall mount Mail Boss styles – the Townhouse and the Metro – will be displayed at the show. Furthermore, Epoch Design will be introducing a new high-capacity locking security mailbox for business use. The Commercial Mail Boss features select 12-gauge electro-galvanized steel construction and a premium brass core tube lock for ultimate mail security. Epoch Design will also be showcasing new accessory products for the popular Mail Boss™ curbside locking mailbox, including newspaper holders.

In addition to introducing the new Mail Boss™ product line, Epoch Design will also be honored at the National Hardware Show with the prestigious 2008 Golden Hammer Communications Award for Business-to-Consumer Advertising. The award, sponsored by Home Channel News, recognizes exceptional suppliers that demonstrate the greatest overall commitment, creativity and success in support of home-center and hardware building-material dealers through the medium of business to consumer advertising. Epoch Design earned the Golden Hammer Award based on its “Mail Boss™ is Peace of Mind” television ad campaign, available for viewing at www.themailboss.com/Press_Release_May08/.

Mail Boss™ products by Epoch Design will be on display at Booth #37636 at the Las Vegas Convention Center.
